COMED 6345-01

Location: Science Building, Room 117

Camp Instructor: Greg Hollmann

Cost: $60

Turn an ordinary summer into another adventure while attending this ultimate science camp. Participants will build, decorate, and launch their own model rockets that reach heights up to 1000 feet. In addition to building and launching the rockets, participants will view videos produced by NASA which highlight our explorations on other planets, discuss the possibility of life beyond Earth, and participate in activities that bring the solar system to scale. Don't miss this incredible opportunity to stimulate and educate young minds!

Down on the Farm

Grades 1-3

June 21-23, Tues-Thurs, 12:30am-3:30pm

COMED 6346-41

Location: RLC Historic School House

Camp Instructor: Angie Kistner
